

NATALIA PIVKO

Natalia Pivko is an established artist currently lives and works in Riga, Latvia.

Pivko has been engaged in fine art since 2012. She is inspired by Flemish painting, fashion, book illustrations, medical atlases, bones, garbage, tattoos, carpets, the Victorian era, apocalyptic theories, macabre childhood rituals, aliens, the yellow press, fabric, fading, zoological museums and all things that evoke memories.

SELECTED COLLECTIONS

The Bunker Art Space, West Palm Beach, USA

GROUP EXHIBITIONS

2023 A feast in time of plague (with Denis Prasolov), Maxim Boxer Gallery, Riga, Latvia

Field of vision, Zuzeum Art Centre, Riga, Latvia

Art in the time of cholera, Pornbach contemporary project, Pornbach, Germany

2022 One day show, Pornbach contemporary project, Pornbach, Germany

2021 Wunderkammer nummer 13, MOSS studio pop-up project, Saint Petersburg, Russia

2020 Memento Vvere, Navicula Artis, Saint Petersburg, Russia

2019 This is Still Life, Cube, Moscow, Russia

2018 Anatomy of the Fairy Tales, Pornbach Contemporary, Pornbach, Germany

Collector's Office, Maxim Boxer Gallery, Moscow, Russia

Lingua Universale, Sevkabel, St. Petersburg, Russia

2017 La Vita, Fiaba, Villa Gaia, Seggiano, Tuscany, Italy

2016 Metamorphoses, Pornbach Contemporary Festival, Pornbach, Germany

First Crew, Mars Gallery, Moscow, Russia

Russian Contemporary: Drawings. No Limits, Savina Gallery, London, UK

2015 Space Seven, Pornbach Contemporary Festival, Pornbach, Germany

Phoenix, 2023
Acrylic on canvas, rubber
45 x 29 cm
17 3/4 x 11 3/8 in

Gregoire, 2023
Acrylic on canvas, rubber
53 x 42 cm
20 7/8 x 16 1/2 in

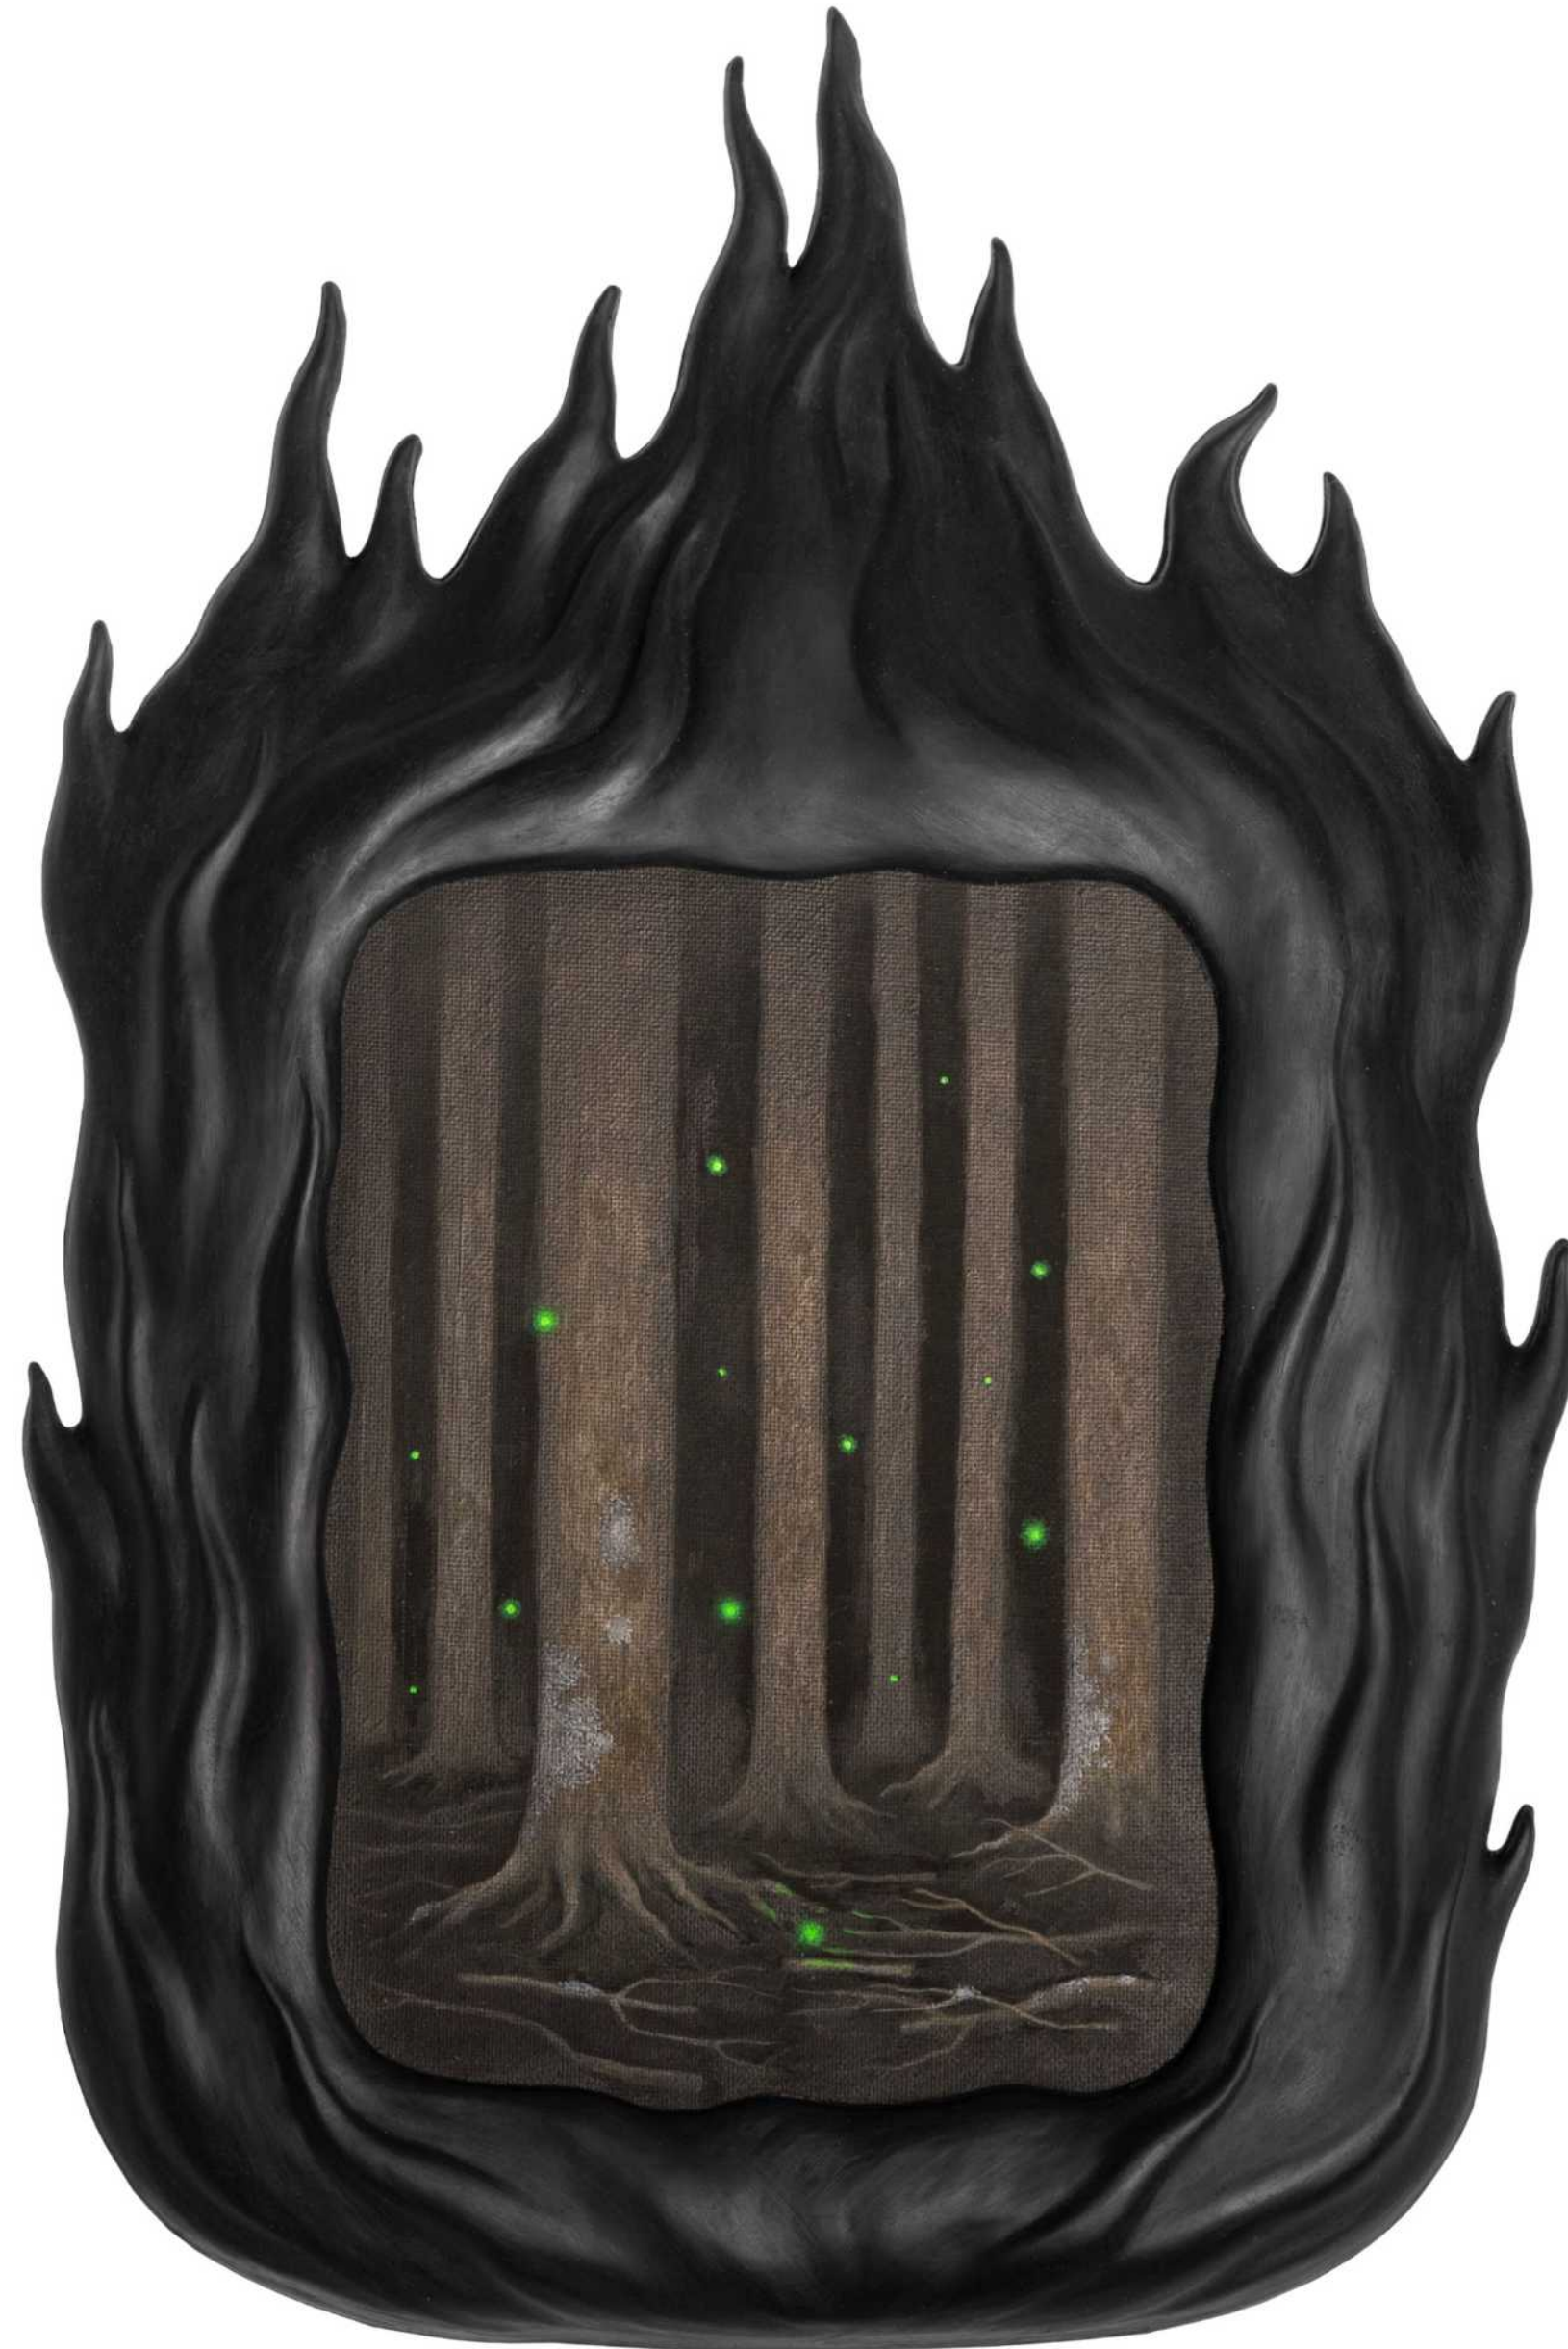

Apparition of a corn, 2023

Acrylic on canvas, rubber

45 x 29 cm

17 3/4 x 11 3/8 in

Fireflies, 2023

Acrylic on canvas, rubber

45 x 30 cm

17 3/4 x 11 3/4 in

Aigars story, 2023

Print on velvet tapestry, embroidery

80 x 115 cm

31 1/2 x 45 1/4 in

Edition of 5 + 2 AP